Re: Rule 40.6(d) Weekly Notification of Rule Amendments (Eris Exchange Submission #2013-06)

Dear Ms. Jergens:

Pursuant to Commodity Futures Trading Commission (the "Commission") Regulation 40.6(d), Eris Exchange, LLC ("Eris Exchange" or the "Exchange") hereby submits this Weekly Notification of Rule Amendments related to fees for the Eris Exchange Interest Rate Swap Futures Contract and a non-substantive amendment to Rule 1101 made effective during the week of March 18, 2013.

Specifically, in accordance with Exchange Rule 305, the Exchange has published fees for the Eris Standard Contracts. Notably, the fees for the Eris Flex Contract remain the same. However, going forward, Eris Flex Contracts will be subject to an annual maintenance fee. The Exchange certifies that it has concurrently published this submission with the attached Fee Circular (see Attachment 1) on the Exchange website at <http://www.erisfutures.com/rules-notices-policies>.

Further, Rule 1101 has been amended to number pre-existing sub-headings. Consequently, the amendment is non-substantive. The amended Rulebook is available on the Exchange's website at <http://www.erisfutures.com/rules-notices-policies>.

In the event that you have questions, please contact me at 312-626-2681 or stephen.humenik@erisfutures.com.

Sincerely,

Stephen M. Humenik
General Counsel and Chief Regulatory Officer
